Applying for O-1 Visa: Individuals with Extraordinary Ability or Achievement

“To qualify for an O-1 visa in the motion picture or television industry, the beneficiary must demonstrate extraordinary achievement evidenced by a degree of skill and recognition significantly above that ordinarily encountered to the extent the person is recognized as outstanding, notable or leading in the motion picture and/or television field.”

If your attorney has told you that you need to generate publicity for your O-1 Visa application, I can help you.

I have helped several young filmmakers in the past, and I am currently working with a number of clients right now.

Here is what I will do:

Work with you to create your Press Release

Create a Media Resource Page on my website, which will serve as a landing page for journalists to gain full information on you. They will be able to download a printable version of your press release.

Create an Online Press Release for those who prefer to read it online rather than download a printable version.

Distribute your press release to our lists of journalists who cover entertainment / film news

Use a commercial press release distribution service to get your release published on over 200 media sites

Help you coordinate media appearances

Your publicity program will last for two months, and the fee is $950.00

In addition to assisting with your O-1 application, garnering publicity will also help you with your career in general.

Please let me know if you have any questions. I look forward to assisting you!

Best Regards,

Steve Thompson
