Theodore Crosby: Creating a Unique, Powerful Persona by Intertwining His Commanding Talents in Film and Television Performing, Voice-Over, and Visual Art with His Music

(November, 2017 – Los Angeles, CA) Theodore Crosby is a genuine multi-talented artist. An actor and voice-over talent with multiple television and film credits, musician, and a gifted visual artist as well!

“I thoroughly enjoy constantly keeping all different creative avenues open,” says Theodore, “whether that be in Acting, Music, Art, or Filmmaking, I have a place in all of those forms of creative expression, and my work in each individual area seems to improve the overall quality of all of my work. Music provides me with the opportunity to both create songs, then apply my artistic and filmmaking skills to videos.”

Theodore has worked in Los Angeles, but is currently working in London. His goal is to work in both cities.

Theodore has trained for both film and theatre performing, in classic and contemporary styles. He adds: "I was in a theatre production recently in Los Angeles for the Fringe Festival, a performance called Chaturbate: The Musical. I very much enjoyed working with the director who always enjoys testing boundaries."

He is inspired by some well accomplished British actors like John Cleese of Fawlty Towers, Monty Python, and A Fish Called Wanda, which is one of Theodore's favorites, along with Children of Men. He is also appreciates the work of Michael Caine, Ian McKellen and Idris Elba.

Theodore Crosby is receiving increasing recognition in several related creative fields. His acting performances command his audiences' attention, his voice-over work is impressive, his music and music videos are reaching an expanding following, and his visual art is yet another example of his creative expression.

We will be hearing much, much more about Theodore Crosby's breakthrough creative accomplishments.
